

SS 30-2 Unit 4: The Cold War Workbook

Definitions:

Brinkmanship

Cold War

Collective Security

Containment

Détente

Deterrence

Expansionism

Ideological conflict

Liberation movements

Non-Alignment

Pro-democracy movements

Second World War

Sphere of Influence

The Cold War Part 1

1. 1972 Summit Series: How did hockey reflect politics in this conflict?

2a. In 1945 the Big Three countries _____, _____, _____ met in _____, Ukraine to discuss the redrawing of the map of Europe after the immanent defeat of Germany and Japan, this would be known as the _____Conference

B. The _____ Conference included dividing _____ into _____ zones of occupation AND having _____ in liberated nations

3a. What was the most important point from the Potsdam Conference?

B. Why did this lead to the beginning of the Cold War?

4. What were the two spheres of influence?

5. Why did Stalin want to keep Germany divided?
6. Why did Stalin want to have a buffer zone?
7. The USA turned to a policy of containment. What is containment in this context?
8. One use of containment was the Truman Doctrine. Why was the Truman doctrine used?
9. The Marshall Plan was another Aid Program used by the United States to help European nations rebuild from WW2. An important caveat of the plan was?
10. Why did countries join the different spheres of influence?
 -
 -
 -
 -
11. What are the names of the two major Collective Security Alliances and which superpower was the leader of the alliance?

Cold War Notes Part 2

1. What is the iron curtain?

2. Name at least 5 different Cold War Strategies used by the superpowers:

3a. What is a Prestige war?

B. Give four examples:

-
-
-
-

4a. What is a hot war?

B. What is MAD?

C. How does the idea of MAD lead to deterrence?

5. What are WMDs and how are they lead to an arms race?

6. How is the arms race an example of deterrence?

7. Was deterrence effective an effective strategy? Explain.
8. Brinkmanship can best be seen in which case study?
9. Why did the USSR want to place missiles in Cuba?
10. Why was this the closest the world came to total destruction?
11. Do you think the Americans were justified in their treatment to Cuba and the Cuban Missile Crisis as a whole? Justify your response.
12. Explain why Korea is an example of a proxy war.
13. Why did the USA lose the war in Vietnam?
14. Who was directly and indirectly involved in the war in Afghanistan 1979-1989
15. What is diplomacy?
16. What is the non-alignment movement? What was the name of the conference where many of these countries met?

17. In a few sentences, explain the following liberation movements:

I. The Hungarian Revolution

II. Prague Spring

18. Explain what détente is

19. Nuclear Arms Treaties are an example of détente, name one of those treaties:

20. When did the Cold War end?