

Social Studies 30-2

Unit 3

Exploring Equality

Part A: Rise of Modern Liberalism / Mixed Economies

Part B: Modern Free Market Ideas

Part C: Social Democracy in Sweden / Nordic Countries

Part D: Command Economies

SS30-2 Unit 3 Part A - Rise of Modern Liberalism / Mixed Economies

1. John D. Rockefeller is considered a robber baron. Give some reasons as to why he symbolizes the negatives of capitalism at the beginning of the 1900s.

2. Any sort of Progressive Movement ends in the late 1910s due to the First _____ Scare. What were people afraid of?

B. This scare led to policies of (define):

i. Isolationism -

ii. Nativism -

iii. A move back towards _____ ideas in the 1920s.

3. Henry Ford is often seen as a captain of industry rather than a robber baron. Explain what actions he took that made him a good case study for the successes of capitalism.

4. The roaring 20's led to massive growth and innovation. What sorts of goods were popular in this era?

5. Summarize how consumerism contributed to the boom of the 1920s.

6. Despite a boom there were some warning signs the economy wasn't truly in the best shape. What was one of the warning signs?

7. There are 3 issues that create and deepen the depression:

#1 - The Stock Market Crash of 1929. How much did the value of America's largest companies drop?

#2 - The Depression goes global - How did an event in the US cause a global collapse of capitalism?

#3 - Bank Runs - What are bank runs? How did bank runs make a bad situation worse?

8. How many were unemployed in the US during the height of the depression? In Canada?

9. Who is John Maynard Keynes? What did he believe?

10. How does Keynesian economics work?

11. Define:

Fiscal Policy -

Monetary Policy -

12A. What is the target of Fiscal Policy?

B. What is the target of Monetary Policy?

13. When were Keynes's theories first practiced in the United States? By whom?

14. Franklin D. Roosevelt's plan was called The _____

The plan focused on the 3 R's:

R_____

R_____

R_____

15. The plan called for many new infrastructure programs known as the _____ due to the many acronyms of the new agencies.

An Example of one is? Explain what it did.

16. What were some positive numbers from the New Deal?

17. What was a criticism of the New Deal?

18. What does the “Post-War Consensus” mean?

19. Explain what a mixed economy is.

20. Why is this period called the “Golden Age of Capitalism”? Give examples of the growth rate.

21. What are some perceived advantages and disadvantages of Mixed Economies?

Some Perceived Advantages	Some Perceived Disadvantages

Part B: Return to Classical Liberalism

1. In theory, when there is higher unemployment (less money in workers' pockets), people aren't spending as much and therefore there is a higher supply of goods. Prices should go down. In the 1970s, a different problem occurred. An oil shortage caused prices to rise (inflation) while at the same time, unemployment was going up as the economy wasn't doing well.

A. What is this phenomenon called?

B. During this period governments had large amounts of _____ and no money to spend.

The Keynesian economic model now looked to be _____.

2. What are the core beliefs of FA Hayek and Milton Friedman?

3. Explain how Austrian Economics through a focus on monetarism works.

4. What is Trickle-Down Economics? List some main points:

5. What are some of the actions Great Britain took under Margaret Thatcher to move their economy towards classical liberalism?

6. What are some perceived advantages and disadvantages of Free Market Economies?

Perceived Advantages	Perceived Disadvantages

7. Explain the criticism of Trickle Down Economics and why it's seen by many as a failure.

8. Differences between Keynesian and Austrian Economics

Keynesian Economics	Austrian Economics

9. What were some of the causes of the economic collapse of 2008? What was the name of this collapse?

10. How did the government respond to the economic crisis of 2008?

Part C: Social Democracies - Sweden and other Nordic Countries

1. What are the Nordic Countries?

Nordic Countries are not democratic socialist by definition and prefer to be called social democracies.

2. What are the differences between democratic socialist countries and social democracies?

Social Democracy	Democratic Socialism
Core Philosophy
Economic Systems
Role of Government
Role of Welfare

3A. What is the economic “Third Way”?

B. What is a Cradle to Grave Welfare System?

Case Study: Sweden

4A. What percentage of Sweden’s major businesses is run privately?

B. Provide some examples of how Sweden is a Cradle to Grave Welfare State

C. Sweden has steep taxes to pay for their many services. What is their average income tax rate compared to the USA and Canada?

D. Summarize: Proponents of Sweden and other Nordic Countries’ social democracy would argue that....

E. Summarize: Arguments against Social democracy would include.....

F. How do you feel about the Nordic System or Social Democracies? Explain why. Use statistics from the lesson for support.

Part D: Command Economies

1. How do command economies attempt to answer the three basic economic questions:

A. What will be produced?

B. How will goods and services be produced?

C. To whom will goods and services be distributed?

D. Who will make these decisions?

2. What is the Gosplan that existed in the Former Soviet Union?

Case Study: Cuba

3. What was the ultimate goal of Fidel Castro?

4. Why is a doctor and a garbage man seen as similar in value and pay in Cuba?

5. What are some perceived advantages and disadvantages of Command Economies?

Some Perceived Advantages	Some Perceived Disadvantages